

GRANT COUNTY FAIR JUDGING REGULATIONS

1. Bona fide judges will be selected. ALL PERSONS WHEN MAKING ENTRIES AGREE TO ACCEPT THESE JUDGES AND ABIDE BY THEIR DECISIONS.
2. No person shall be entitled to a premium who was not the bona fide owner of the property at the time of entry.
3. Premiums are paid ONLY from awards made by judges as they appear on the judge's sheets and NOT from ribbons attached to the exhibit. This rule is strictly enforced because of the fact that judge's reports are the only official records of correct awards. Ribbons may be misplaced or tampered with.
4. All judges please report to fair office before leaving.
5. Please have your entry tag on all items, articles and animals that require tags which are to be exhibited; failure to do so means that you will not receive the premium even though a ribbon was won by you. This applies to all departments.

GRANT COUNTY MASTER SHOWMANSHIP CONTEST

The Grant County Fair Master Showmanship Contest will be held on Sunday, at approximately 10:30 a.m. in the open show barn.

What YOU Need to Know:

1. Participants in this year's contest will represent the Dairy, Beef, Sheep, Swine and Goat Departments. The first or second place senior (or older) division showmanship winner will represent all departments except for goats, which will be represented by the first place meat goat and first place dairy goat showmanship winner. If the first or second place individual is unable to participate, then the third place senior showman will become eligible.
2. In the event a previous Master Showman should win one of the above stated classes, the option to participate in the Master Showman class will default to the third place winner in the class.
3. Each participant will bring the animal they won their species with to the Master Showman competition. The swine superintendents will select additional animals for the swine rotation.
4. Exhibitors will have 15 minutes to show each species. After the allotted amount of time, participants will rotate to a new species.
5. If a participant chooses not to participate in the Master Showman class, the option to participate will default to the third place winner in that class.
6. If a member is eligible to participate in the Master Showman contest in more than one species, he/she must choose in which species he/she will participate within one hour of winning the second species contest. The member must inform BOTH species Superintendents of his/her decision. The third place winner in their non-chosen species will have the option to participate.
7. There will be a judge to represent each species (5 judges total).

4-H FAMILY PROJECT DAY PRIZE DRAWING
